Dear Mr. Dulles:

I received your letter of July 10 with the cartoon. At least I got off to a good start. It's up to me to produce the proper results. I'll lean heavily upon you and your staff.

I must enter Walter Reed for a minor leg operation some time the first week in August. I'll be laid up four or five days, I presume, then the Jenner Committee wants me to appear before it, and I'll lay the ground work for the study of your Agency. If you're in town, I'll look forward to seeing you. I'll get in touch with you from Walter Reed. It will be good to see you again.

Sincerely,

Mark W. Clark

MWC/spb

P.S. I have heard nothing from Senator McCarthy.
